

Resources

This page is dedicated to providing instructors with the various resources they might need in the day-to-day work of managing classrooms, connecting with students, navigating departments, partnering with communities, or anything else that helps you make your class a success. If there's a specific resource you'd like to see added here, please contact us and let us know how we can help.

For more specific resources, see the list below and check back as it will be growing soon.
